

CITY OF FARMINGTON LICENSE PROCESS

Therapeutic Massage License

A license is not required for massage therapists working in a medical, chiropractic or dental office.

An applicant and all employees must have 100 hours of certified therapeutic massage training from an approved school recognized by a national or state professional therapeutic massage organization. Please review Title 3 Chapter 15 of the City Code for complete details. All licenses expire December 31 of each year. Following is the process to obtain a Therapeutic Massage license:

1. Application forms, fees and a Certificate of Insurance showing coverage through December 31 of the current year should be submitted to the city of Farmington at least three weeks prior to a City Council meeting.
2. A background check will be performed by the Farmington Police Department.
3. A public hearing is required to be held at a City Council meeting. The public hearing requires 10 days' notice prior to the meeting. The public hearing notice is submitted to the newspaper a week prior to this 10-day period. Council meetings are held the first and third Mondays of every month.
4. Upon City Council approval, a license is issued. The entire process takes approximately three weeks.
5. Fees: Business License $50 (includes one therapist)
Business Investigation $300
Therapist Investigation $200
Additional Therapists $50/each
Total fee upon application: $550 (if one therapist)
Yearly Renewal Fee: $50

Have you ever been convicted of any crime, either felony or misdemeanor? _____ If yes, please state place and nature of offense: _____

I, the undersigned, hereby authorize and grant my informed consent to permit the Bureau of Criminal Apprehension (hereafter "BCA") and the Farmington Police Department (hereafter "FPD") to release to and make available to the city of Farmington, Minnesota (hereafter "city") and/or its representatives all data classified as private which concerns me and which may be in your possession. The data, classified as private under M.S. 13.02, Subd. 12, includes all data which has been collected, created, received, retained or disseminated in whatever form which in any way relates to my dealings with the BCA and/or the FPD. I understand the purpose of permitting the city to have access to this information is to determine my suitability for licensure.

By signing this authorization, I hereby release the BCA and the FPD from any and all liability which otherwise may or does accrue as a result of the release of any and all data, regardless of its accuracy. I also release the city from any and all liability for its receipt and use of data received pursuant to this consent. I understand that if I am rejected on the basis of a criminal conviction, I will be notified in writing and be given rights of redress subject to applicable laws. I also understand that I am not legally required to sign this form, but if I do not, the city will not be able to determine whether my conviction record is a license-related consideration.

This authorization shall be valid for a period of one year, but I reserve the right, at any time prior to that expiration, to cancel the written authorization by providing written notice to the city of that intent.

CITY OF FARMINGTON – DATA PRACTICES ACT NOTICE

Minnesota law requires that you be informed of your rights as they pertain to private information (“private data”) collected from you by the city of Farmington (“the city”). Private data is that information held by the city which is available to you, but not to the public.

You have the right to refuse to provide the information requested on this application form, however, without certain information, the city may be unable to approve the license applied for. If you feel that certain information requested is an unwarranted invasion of privacy, please contact the Human Resources Director.

The dissemination and the use of private data we collect is limited to that necessary for the administration and management of the city’s licensing program. Persons or agencies with whom this information may be shared include:

- City personnel, including law enforcement personnel, administering the license program;
- The Bureau of Criminal Apprehension;
- The city attorney and support staff of the city attorney’s office;
- Federal, state, local, and contracted private auditors;
- Federal and state agencies with oversight or responsibility related to the licensed business;
- Those individuals or agencies as to whom you give your express written permission for release of the information.

Unless otherwise authorized by state statute or federal law, other governmental agencies utilizing the reported private data must also treat the information as private.

You may wish to exercise your rights as contained in the Minnesota Government Data Practices Act. These rights include:

- The right to see and obtain copies of data maintained about you;
- The right to be told the contents and meaning of the data; and
- The right to contest the accuracy and completeness of the data.

To exercise these rights, contact the Farmington Human Resources Director at 430 Third Street, Farmington, MN 55024 (651) 280-6800. I have read and I understand the above information regarding my rights as a subject of government data.

CERTIFICATION OF COMPLIANCE
MINNESOTA WORKERS' COMPENSATION LAW

Form FG TN2009

Minnesota Statute, Section 176.182 requires every state and local licensing agency to withhold the issuance or renewal of a license or permit to operate a business or engage in an activity in Minnesota until the applicant presents acceptable evidence of compliance with the workers' compensation insurance coverage requirement of Chapter 176. The information required will be collected by the licensing agency and retained in their files. The information required is: name of insurance company, policy number, and dates of coverage or permit to self-insure.

This information is required by law, and licenses and permits to operate a business may not be issued or renewed if it is not provided and/or is falsely reported. Furthermore, if this information is not provided or falsely stated, it may result in a $2,000 penalty assessed against the applicant by the Commissioner of the Department of Labor and Industry.

176.182 BUSINESS LICENSES OR PERMITS; COVERAGE REQUIRED

Every state and local licensing agency to withhold the issuance or renewal of a license or permit to operate a business in Minnesota until the applicant presents acceptable evidence of compliance with the workers' compensation insurance coverage requirement of Section 176.181, subdivision 2, by providing the name of the insurance company, the policy number, and the dates of coverage or the permit to self-insure. The commissioner shall assess a penalty to the employer of $2,000 payable to the assigned risk safety account, if the information is not reported or is falsely reported.

Neither the state nor any governmental subdivision of the state shall enter into any contract for the doing of any public work before receiving from all other contracting parties acceptable evidence of compliance with the workers' compensation insurance coverage requirement of Section 176.181, subdivision 2.

This section shall not be construed to create any liability on the part of the state or any governmental subdivision to pay workers' compensation benefits or to indemnify the special compensation fund, an employer, or insurer who pays workers' compensation benefits.
