CITY OF ROSEVILLE

TRANSPORT OPERATIONS ANALYST I
TRANSPORT OPERATIONS ANALYST II

DEFINITION
To perform professional administrative and technical duties related to the operations of the City’s public transit services and programs; to administer transit operations contracts; and to provide highly responsible technical staff assistance in conducting analyses of public transit systems and programs and make related recommendations.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS

Transit Operations Analyst I – This is the entry level class in the Transit Operations Analyst series. This class is distinguished from the journey level by the performance of the more routine tasks and duties assigned to positions within this series. Employees at this level are not expected to perform with the same independence of direction and judgment on matters allocated to the journey level. Since this class is typically used as a training class, employees may have only limited or no directly related work experience. Employees work under general supervision while learning job tasks.

Transit Operations Analyst II – This is the journey level class within the Transit Operations Analyst series and is distinguished from the I level by the assignment of the full range of duties. Employees at this level receive only occasional instruction or assistance as new, unusual or unique situations arise and are fully aware of the operating procedures and policies within the work unit. Positions in this class are flexibly staffed and are normally filled by advancement from the I level.
